

UK Event Sector Roadmap

2020: A Sustainable Event Industry

100% of staff have sustainability within their job responsibilities

Accessibility has been considered for 100% of your events and initiatives are documented

100% of your supply chain have received education on sustainability

At least two knowledge sharing opportunities exist each year

Social inclusion has been considered for 100% of your events and initiatives are documented

40% water reduction or reuse

100% of expressions of dissent are recorded and managed

100% of suppliers align with a documented sustainable procurement policy

At least two stakeholder engagement opportunities each year

Awareness raising, knowledge sharing and behaviour change have been considered for 100% of your events and initiatives are documented

40% carbon emission reduction

100% monitoring and reporting on economic benefits from sustainability initiatives and benefits received from suppliers

At least one legacy initiative created after each year or event

0% loss of parklands and habitats. 100% of negative ecological impacts to be mitigated

0% rate of injuries and fatalities is achieved

20% increase in sustainability awareness among attendees

40% operational energy reduction and at least 40% sourcing from renewable energy

An economic impact report is produced after each event or each year

Provision of public transport for 100% of attendees

0% operational waste to landfill within closed venues

Created by

POSITIVE IMPACT

